INNOVATIVE SOLUTIONS NOAH MANYIKA IS CHAMPIONING:

- The WOP Opportunity Fund: a permanent and self-sustaining war-chest that will use private equity and venture capital returns to fund War on Poverty Initiatives in Africa and Urban America.
- The Light The Way Campaign: Bringing the gift of light by putting simple Solar Home Solutions in rural households. In addition to dealing with energy poverty, the campaign will also address the civic illiteracy of strategic rural households and equip them to become civic trainers and community enterprise developers.

Evander Holyfield's NASCAR racing team honor Noah's project by carrying the logo of his organization on their car at the races.

“As global citizens we have a responsibility to leverage our experience and networks to do good for mankind.”

NOAH MANYIKA

From 2009 to 2013, Noah used his global network to support the work of the Organ for National Healing, Reconciliation and Integration created by the Zimbabwe Government of National Unity (GNU) to heal the wounds inflicted by decades social, political and economic turmoil. After the dissolution of the GNU, 2013, Zimbabwe slipped back into political dysfunction, Noah returned to Zimbabwe with many other Zimbabweans who had lived in the diaspora to participate in the 2018 election in an effort to offer Zimbabweans more leadership choices.

Noah is a prolific blogger/writer whose book and articles have received excellent reviews.

“An excellent work...one of the two best I have ever read on Christian leadership.”

Steve Martin – Derek Prince Ministries

“A powerful work...offers superb clarity and discernment on the way God regards the leadership issue, both in Christian and secular circles.”

Dennis Matangira : Zebu Investment Partners

“This book has the inspirational edge of a Dale Carnegie piece and the moral backbone of the book of James. It is a sermon on leadership, not a theoretical, ivory tower polemic.”

J. Champion- Caribbeans for Christ

“The Challenge of Leadership still remains one of the best books I’ve ever read.”
